

Vice-President, Valuation Tribunal for England

The Judicial Appointments Commission invites applications for the post of Vice-President(s), Valuation Tribunal for England (VTE). This is a fee paid position, requiring an average time commitment of two days per month.

The Vice President's post provides an exciting and challenging opportunity to support the inaugural President of the VTE. The role will involve assisting the President in managing and leading the volunteer membership in addition to occasionally presiding at tribunal hearings. The successful candidate(s) will work with the President to strengthen judicial independence and enhance service to the public.

You will be required to travel frequently throughout England.

Fees: £280.50 per day
