

How are High Court Judges appointed?

On merit.

The Judicial Appointments Commission is inviting applications for appointment as a High Court Judge. The 21 vacancies will be in the Queen's Bench and Chancery Divisions from October 2008.

You are eligible to apply if you have been a solicitor or barrister for 10 years or a Circuit Judge for two years.

For an application form and information pack, including the full eligibility criteria, please visit our website www.judicialappointments.gov.uk email us at jaas@jac.gsi.gov.uk or call 020 7210 0123.

The closing date for applications is 4 March 2008.

